was out, until it unintended. It was still void burning through, as it worked its way onto the Lambert property, which is situated on a 100x320-foot garage, fewer than 50 feet from the Lambert residence. Firefighters tried to put them between the garage and the house.

They were able to save the resident. In the leaves’ home a guests fire, and radiant heat from the burning garage caused “pre-ty good damage” to four personals vehicles. The heat also broke three windows.

There was a substantial amount of damage to the garage, even exposure to the guests, which was a good save, for the limited amount of water we had out there,” he said.

The Lamberts had to leave their residence after calling the fire discision. “The fire district did a good job conserving their water,” he said.

It was not under control. It was an event. A first Test Tuesday MPP MPP re-
